THE FULFILLMENT OF HIS- TORY: THE NEW JERUSALEM

1. "The Tabernacle of God is with Men" (Rev. 21:3).

A happy ending may not suit the fancy of modern writers of fiction, but it does suit God. He "will work all things after the counsel of his own will" (1 John 1:11) and it is that redeemed man shall "be to the praise of his glory" (Eph. 1:12). The eternal, omnipotent God will bring the history of His dealings with mankind to a glorious ending. The last book of the Bible comes to its last pages where, after dealing with the final struggle of man with his enemy Satan (which has gone on since the entrance of sin into the world in the Garden of Eden), we find the glorious, God-given revelation of the "divine, final restoration of the universe, a picture of the home where we who love the Lord Jesus will forever dwell."

1. "The Tabernacle of God is with Men" (Rev. 21:3).

Our God is always with His people, but there is a promise of the time when He shall "pitch His tent" (for thus we might translate the word "tabernacle") in their very midst and "be with them" in full and unhindered fellowship. This He once did for a time when "the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14), or, literally, "tabernacled among us." In the day of which our lesson speaks He will come to live permanently with His people.

The blessings of His divine presence are beautifully described in verses 4 to 6. There will be no more tears, because every occasion for them is gone. There will be no death, pain or sorrow, for the one who sits upon the throne will have made everything new.

Christianity does not evade the question of sorrow and suffering, but it does point to a glorious day when they will be gone forever. What a precious promise!

II. "The Holy City . . . Having the Glory of God" (Rev. 21:3).

The description of the holy city is differently interpreted, but perhaps the best one is that it will be in the form of a pyramid on a square base 1,500 miles in width and length (12,000 furlongs—v. 16), rising in terraces, and 1,500 miles high at the top.

The description of the city is glorious beyond words (read 21:1 through 22:7), but the crowning fact is that it has "the glory of God." His presence means more than all the glories of precious stones and "pure gold, like unto clear glass." He is more than His gifts, and His presence is more glorious than all His mighty works.

III. God the Almighty and the Lamb Are the Temple (vv. 22).

As long as we live under the present conditions of life, we cannot do without a place to meet to worship God and to receive spiritual help and strength—a temple. But when the redeemed are gathered in the Holy City they will have no need for a temple. The place of meeting with God "which now has to be delimited from the world, and set apart for God—yes, and held with determination and force of will against invading hosts—has there expanded to cover the whole area of human experience and activity. God's presence has no longer to be sought; it is known; it is felt; universal and all-pervading as the light of day" (C. Anderson Scott).

IV. No Need of the Sun—the Glory of God Did Light It (vv. 23, 24).

The great need of man in this world is light. He rejoices in the sun as it sheds its life-giving rays upon the earth. He does his work and finds his healthful recreation in the day. When darkness comes, he must have illumination, that he may read, study, work, or fellowship with others. From the flickering pine knot man went on to the candle, to the lamp, and then to the electric light, and the men who love light (see John 1:9) are able to practice their evil deeds.

In the New Jerusalem all will be light, for the One who is light (1 John 1:9) and the source of all light, permits His glory to shine forth and "lighten it." Jesus, the Lamb, is the light of the world (John 8:12); the never failing lamp of the city.

In each light not only the nations of the earth, but their kings as well, will walk, doing honor with the light of the One who is all-glorious. The verses which follow our lesson tell us that the gates of the city shall never be closed, but only that which is good and honorable shall enter in. Nothing sinful, vile, or false shall come within its blessed portals.

POPEYE, THE RECRUITING OFFICER, MEETS THE ADMIRAL!

POPEYE: LOOK, MISTER ADMIRAL! I'VE GOT A MESSAGE FOR YOU. I'VE GOT A MESSAGE FOR YOU. I'VE GOT A MESSAGE FOR YOU.

POPEYE: YES, BUT I CAN'T KEEP AWAY FROM THE NAVY!!

Your pay in the Navy is gravy

No rent to pay. No food to buy. No doctor's bills. Even movies and other entertainments are free. And when you first enlist, the Navy gives you $118.00 worth of uniforms.

And if you want to learn a trade, the Navy is the place to do it. There are forty-five odd trades you can learn. . . . And you'll work hundreds of dollars the first year.

The Navy offers the chance of a lifetime to young men. If you are 17 or over, get free copy of the illustrated booklet "LIFE IN THE U. S. NAVY," from the Navy Editor of this newspaper. Simply write or call.

SERVE YOUR COUNTRY! BUILD YOUR FUTURE! GET IN THE NAVY NOW!

"NAVY INTELLIGENCE"

Is it necessary to be a high school graduate in order to enlist in the Navy?

No. Navy enlistees need not be high school graduates. All applicants will be given an examination. A grade of 50 per cent or better on this examination is sufficiently high to pass the Navy educational standards. However, a high school education will be valuable to the seaman during his Navy enlistment.

After I have served my term of enlistment, what benefits do I get for re-enlistment?

Depending on your rate and length of service, you can get a cash bonus up to $300 plus 30 days leave with pay.

What does the term "ash can" mean in the Navy?

An "ash can" is a slang term applied to the depth charge used to combat submarines. The average "ash can" is a container filled with approximately 300 pounds of TNT and can be dropped overboard from a ship and so controlled as to explode at depths ranging from 35 to 300 feet. These are generally carried by depth ships in the fleet, as a back droping charge regulated to explode at 25 fathoms or more. These "ash cans" are either rolled off the stern or shot from "cannons" which hurl one right and one left simultaneously.

What is the greatest possible pay I can expect to earn during my first term of enlistment?

It is possible to earn as much as $126 a month by the end of your first term of enlistment, and remember that your clothing, lodging, medical and dental care are all supplied free.

THE RECORD—Facts That Concern You
No. 31 of a Series

There are always a few "smart alecks" who want to stand up and rock the boat. But most people try to keep out of trouble.

The same sort of thing happens in the retailing of beer. The great majority of beer retail establishments are clean, law-abiding and wholesome. But occasionally you may find a "smart aleck" retailer who violates the law or permits anti-social conditions.

Weed the brewing industry want these anti-social retailers wiped out because they impair their right to drink good beer...and our right to make it.

BEER...a beverage of moderation

There are some 16,000 American banks, each owned and operated by local citizens. Separate units are knit together into one great "system" by the common bond of service. Responsive to the needs of the community, yet they are geared to meet the nation's needs instantly in its hour of crisis. There's nothing like it elsewhere; it's the envy of every other country; it's democracy functioning at its very best.
